

weekly mamma's

5/26/2008

Projector123

Streamers, balloons, moist yellow cake with chocolate chips and chocolate fudge frosting (sorry, I get carried away when it comes to cake)- the recipe for a great birthday party, right? Then, take your kiddos favorite TV Show (mine would obviously be Elmo or Mickey) or Movie and "project" it onto a large screen anywhere in your house, backyard or party venue...and NOW you have the perfect party.

Projector123.com can help you take the usual birthday party from ordinary to extraordinary and create a big-screen movie viewing experience that takes entertaining to a whole new level. Can you imagine the look on your little darling's face when Barney, Elmo, the Disney Princesses or Sponge Bob are brought to life on a big screen? Imagine the surprise and delight on the faces of your child's friends as they see the party's main character displayed larger than life with a projector rental from Projector123.com.

Whether you choose a costume party theme, a cartoon character theme, or something completely unique for your child, you can enhance the experience with a projector rental from Projector123.com. Showcase images of pretty princesses and fairies or project robots and Spiderman -- the options are virtually limitless when you choose to bring your birthday party theme to life for your child and your guests.

 Use Promo Code 15MAMMA08 and receive $15 off your rental from Projector123 (first 15 people who mention the code will receive the discount- so you may want to plan ahead).

